16:03:00 Expectations of Parents, Guardians and Spectators Preamble

Youth soccer provides young athletes with an opportunity to develop their skills, build character, and learn the values of teamwork, respect, and sportsmanship. Parents, Guardians and Spectators play an essential role in creating a positive and supportive environment that allows players to grow both on and off the field. However, inappropriate behavior by spectators—such as excessive criticism, unsportsmanlike conduct, and undue pressure on players, referees, and coaches—can diminish the integrity of the game and the developmental goals of Nevada Youth Soccer.

The purpose of this policy is to promote good spectator behavior and ensure that the sidelines remain a space of encouragement and respect. While our goal is never to punish players for the actions of their parents, guardians or spectators, we will always prioritize the integrity of the match environment. If necessary, we will consider suspending or removing a player from playing soccer as a last resort to address violent, egregious or persistent sideline misconduct and restore a positive atmosphere. This policy establishes clear expectations for parent and spectator conduct at youth soccer matches to ensure that all players, officials, and fellow spectators can enjoy a safe, respectful, and encouraging atmosphere. By setting forth guidelines and consequences for misconduct, this policy aims to uphold the values of fair play, respect, and enjoyment for all participants.

Through a collective commitment to these standards, we can help create an environment where young athletes feel supported, motivated, and free to develop their love for the game in a positive and constructive manner.
